

AJOT

The American Journal of Occupational Therapy

November 1990, Volume 44, Number 11

Special Issue on Multiple Personality Disorder
M. Laurita Fike, Guest Editor

967

Nationally Speaking—Childhood Sexual Abuse
and Multiple Personality Disorder: Emotional
Sequelae of Caretakers
M. Laurita Fike

PRACTICE

971

Multiple Personality Disorder: An Overview
Bennett G. Braun

978

Child Abuse as an Antecedent of Multiple
Personality Disorder
Lynda C. Baldwin

984

Clinical Manifestations in Persons With Multiple Personality Disorder
M. Laurita Fike

991

Expressive Therapy in Conjunction With Psychotherapy in the Treatment of Persons With Multiple Personality Disorder
John F. Higdon

994

Understanding and Cooperation Among Alter and Host Personalities
Peggy L. Dawson

999

Considerations and Techniques in the Treatment of Persons With Multiple Personality Disorder
M. Laurita Fike

1008

Use of the Role Checklist With the Patient With Multiple Personality Disorder
Jane Musgrave Sepiol, Jeanette Froehlich

1013

Art and Multiple Personality Disorder: An Expressive Framework for Occupational Therapy
Becky Frye

1024

Occupational Therapy With Patients With Multiple Personality Disorder: Personal
Reflections
Sarah T. Skinner

DEPARTMENTS

1028

Looking Back—Evolving Educational Practices in Occupational Therapy: The War Emergency
Courses, 1936–1954
Wendy Colman

1037

Case Report—Toward Becoming One Self
Susan Lake Angel

1045

Brief or New—The Sand Tray Technique in the Treatment of Patients With Dissociative
Disorders: Recommendations for Occupational Therapists
Roberta G. Sachs

1048

The Issue Is—Understanding Skepticism Toward
Multiple Personality Disorder
Peggy L. Dawson

1052

Book Reviews

(ISSN 0272-9490)

Official Publication of The American Occupational Therapy
Association, Inc.

© 1990 by

The American Occupational Therapy Association, Inc.